PROJECTS

E- commerce website

◇ Developed an e-commerce website for fashion utilizing technologies such as HTML, CSS, JavaScript, Node.js, and MongoDB. Integrated a custom design template, resulting in a unique and visually appealing user interface that increased website engagement. Successfully integrated a secure payment gateway, enabling seamless transactions.

Hostel Management System

◇ Developed a comprehensive Java-based system to manage hostel operations including room allocation, student information, fee payments, and reporting. Developed a robust database management system using MySQL.

CogniWrench (AIaaS based applications for AI Tools)

◇ Developed an innovative AIaaS platform called CogniWrench, providing services such as music, image, code, and video generation on a single platform. The app features monetized services, allowing users to leverage AI for their specific needs. Employed cutting-edge front-end tools technologies.

Blogging Platform

◇ Built a full-stack blogging platform using the MERN stack, featuring secure user authentication with JWT, blog creation with rich text editing, likes and comments, and user profile management. Implemented search, category, and tag-based filtering for easy content discovery, along with an admin dashboard to manage users and posts.

Excel Analytics Platform

◇ Built a full-stack Excel analytics and visualization platform using the MERN stack, enabling users to upload Excel files, analyze data, and generate 2D and 3D visualizations. Implemented secure user authentication, AI-powered insights using OpenAI, upload history tracking, downloadable outputs, and an admin dashboard for managing users and files.
